PAINTING COMPANY INC

We Paint Colors to Enrich Life

We create an environment where your desires are fulfilled through colors. We work together with property owners just like you, architects, designers, asset managers, general contractors and even home owners to give you what you want. Or how we say it "We Paint Colors to Enrich Life"

Your enriched colors will motivate, inspire or create a mood. It sets the stage for a wonderful life or prosperous business and speaks to the owner's personality and vision. We are proud of our ability to help clients realize their vision through color and design. Whether cheerful, relaxed, refreshed or fun-filled — a commercial property, retail space, condominium or single-family home — Affinity Painting paints colors to life, so beautifully

If it is your commercial property, retail space, condominium, single-family home, or executive estate, we tell your story and create your vision through enriched colors and design. We work closely together to create the visual experience you want to share.

Wide spectrum of clients.

Together we use enriched colors to transform your mere buildings and houses into distinctive properties that tell a story and evoke emotions. Whether you have a name brand on Rodeo Drive, single-family home, educational facility or a five-star restaurant, we tell your story and create your vision through enriched colors and designs. We work closely with you to create the visual experience you want to share with others.

Ahead of the curve.

We are pioneers that used green-friendly paint when it was first introduced. Today 95%+ of our paints and finishes are green including VOC-protective coatings (volatile organic compounds), which are both resistant and good for your environment.

Constant and Never Ending Improvement

Our team is continually developing new procedures and testing new painting products, as well as furthering their education through workshops and re-certification. We are committed to continual training and education in such industry organizations as Environmental Protective Agency (EPA Cert #NAT-111087-1), Painting and Decorating Contractors of America (PDCA) and the Society for Protective Coatings (SSPC).

Our mission.

By working together with Fortune 500 companies, government agencies, and nonprofit organizations, we envision awakening, brightening and igniting experiences and style in our communities. We bring enriched colors to life, transforming the lives of others and making the world a beautiful place.

Our Core Values

- We give you our HEART, SOUL and Service!
- We see the bigger picture, and start with your end desire in mind, giving you what they want.
- We always add more value:
Keep the ultimate promise and deliver.
- Our word is our bond: We give no excuses.
We make the impossible, POSSIBLE.
- Our training never stops:
Improvement is constant and never ending.
- We chose to be legendary: Get results.
Defy the odds. Set the Standard! Step up!
- We Honor and celebrate:
We stand united with love and respect.

Helping people in need, Buckets of Love

We Help people in need and we give back to your communities.

Outstanding service is of paramount importance to our company. In 2012, we kicked off the Buckets of Love campaign to help feed families during Thanksgiving. To date, we have provided over 2,700 Thanksgiving dinners to your neighbors!

Each Christmas, Buckets of Love brings warmth to the homeless and others in need with a new sleeping bag and warm goodies such as socks, gloves, blankets, and waterproof ponchos. We have provided over 1,250 Buckets of Love in partnership with the Midnight Mission to reach people in need.

Testimonials

I couldn't be happier with Affinity. Everyone has been so helpful, from picking out the "right white" to understanding the best finishes on things.
~Alexa B.

My company was very pleased with the results and couldn't be happier with our choice to go with Affinity. I will be sure to call you again when I need any painting services, as well as refer you to anyone else who does.
~Jimmy N.

The experience with Affinity Painting was very impressive. They took great care of our home during the entire process. They were organized, clean, detail oriented, and showed up for work on time every day.
~Bobbi
